May 16, 2019

Policy Planning – Priorities

- CA Act Review - Modernizing CA Operations
- Development Permitting Regulation Review
- Finalize Regulation mapping update and enhancing streamlined processes
- Conservation Ontario client service and streamlining initiative

Policy Planning – Challenges

More Homes, More Choice Act, Bill 108

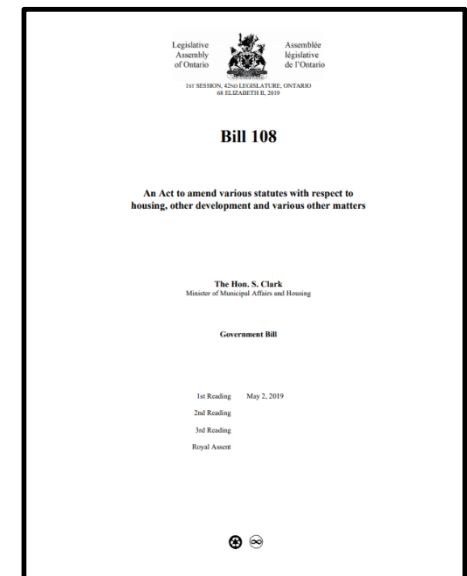

First Reading May 2, Amends several Acts, some with their own current ERO proposals with competing deadlines, including:

- Endangered Species Act (May 18)
- CA Act and Permitting Regulation (May 20/21)
- Environmental Assessment Act (May 25)
- Planning Act, Local Planning Appeal Tribunal Act (June 1)

Excess soil regulatory proposal (May 31)

A Place to Grow: Growth Plan for the Greater Golden Horseshoe – effective May 16, 2019 – transition regulation (June 1)

Keeping TRCA Board of Directors informed of above legislative changes

Policy Planning – Required Cooperation

- All Divisions – Timely provision of expert review and comments, while balancing existing workload and priorities
- Development and Engineering Services – Input on regulation mapping update, MCRs, updating Procedural Manual
- Navigating the shifting and uncertain Provincial policy landscape
 - Knowing TRCA's corporate positioning
 - Consistent messaging to staff and stakeholders

TRCA Staff Hub - v3 > Tasks > Policy Consultation Submissions

Policy Consultation Submissions

Toronto and Region Conservation Authority (TRCA) provides written submissions to legislative, policy and regulatory proposals from senior levels of government, where TRCA interests may be affected.

The majority of these proposals are posted on the Environmental Registry of Ontario (ERO). Depending on the topic area, different TRCA divisions may take the lead to solicit input and prepare the corporate response.

To ensure consistency across the organization and alignment with corporate messaging and policy positioning, TRCA staff should review the past submissions posted below when formulating future responses to related legislative and policy proposals.
