

ECS Lunch and Learn Chat Log

March 29, 2022

[11:03 AM] Jacqueline DeSantis

Jacqueline.DeSantis@trca.ca

like 1

[11:06 AM] Sharon Lam

Hi everyone, thank you for joining us! If you have any questions for Margot and Jackie, please feel free to type your questions in the Chat throughout the presentation.

For a copy of the guides, please email Jackie. The guides will be available on the Scientific Knowledge Sharing Hub soon!

like 2

[11:24 AM] Sharon Lam

<https://www.ontario.ca/laws/regulation/r17588>

[11:40 AM] Ryan Stephenson

Uncertainties with Invasive species as well will be a challenge to overcome, has this been discussed/addressed in the BMPs?

like 3

We spoke in the review process of these documents about use of Mycorrhizal inoculation in urban soils. Has this approach become more wide spread?

like 2

[11:48 AM] Sharon Lam

- Guide 1: Best Practices Guide for Urban Forest Planning in Peel
- Guide 2: Urban Forest Management Best Practices Guide for Peel
- Guide 3: Guide for Tree and Shrub Standards & Specifications for Regional Roads in Peel
- Guide 4: Potential Street & Park Tree Species for Peel in a Climate Change Context
- Guide 5: Working with Trees - Best Practices for a Resilient Future
- Executive Summary: Best Practices and Strategies for the Urban Forest in a Climate Change Context

like 3

[11:51 AM] Noah Gaetz

I need to sign off - great work Margot - thanks

like 1

[11:52 AM] Sharon Lam

Thanks to some great behind-the-scenes work by David Todd and Larissa, the guides are now available on the Scientific Knowledge Sharing Hub: <https://hub.trcastaff.ca/knowledge-sharing/#protocols>

like 3 laugh 1 heart 1

[11:54 AM] Andrew Chaisson

take the Black Gum!

laugh 1 like 2

[11:56 AM] Daniel Filippi

Thanks Andrew - parents took the black gum, it's a beautiful tree!

like 2 heart 1

[12:00 PM] Shannon Logan

Great talk!!

[12:01 PM] Margot Ursic

Thanks for having me!

heart 2 like 2